U. S. EXPENSE CUT BY ECONOMY BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Hoover "Furlough Plan" Adopted To Take Place of Previously Approved 10 Per Cent Slash in Federal Salaries.

PRESIDENT SCORED FOR INTERFERENCE

Measure, in Final Form, Expected To Provide Saving of From $120,000,000 to $150,000,000.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Amid democratic charges that President Hoover had "wrecked" the national economy bill, the senate approved the measure tonight after cutting its total savings by about $100,000,000.

Instead of the $228,000,000 reduction in governmental expenditures recommended by the senate's bi-partisan economy committee, the bill in its final form was variously estimated to save from $120,000,000 to $150,000,000.

Accusing the president of "battering" to put over his "furlough plan" in place of a flat cut in government salaries, democratic senators called upon the chief executive to take the responsibility for recommending new ways to make up the difference.

The bill was passed after the senate had rejected its action of yesterday and substituted the Hoover plan for furloughing federal employees for the flat 10 per cent salary cut recommended by the committee.

Savings Reduced. Opponents of the furlough plan contended this reduced the savings by millions of dollars.

Estimates differed widely, some opponents of the furlough plan asserting it would not come within $70,000,000 of saving as much money as the straight salary slash, while its proponents placed the difference at about $27,000,000.

Yesterday the senate threw out of the bill more than $18,000,000 in savings represented in the committee's recommendations for tightening the restrictions on allowances and hospitalization.

By a vote of 38 to 36 the senate adopted the administration's furlough plan after a sharp fight led by Senator Moses, republican, Kansas, and a republican independent, a Follette, of Wisconsin.

It provides in brief that civilian federal employees working on a yearly basis be furloughed for a month without pay and those employed by the day be placed on a five-day week.

The president is given authority to exempt from the furlough those employees whose services are considered indispensable.

Two Switch Votes. On the furlough plan, two senators, Capper, republican, Kansas, and Capper, republican, Kansas, switched their votes from "nay" to "yea" after previously endorsing the furlough plan.

The development brought from Senator Barnes, democrat, New York, the assertion that President Hoover last Friday had begun efforts to force upon the senate the furlough plan after previously endorsing the furlough plan.

He was joined in his criticism of the furlough plan by Senator Follette, of Wisconsin.

Atlanta Youth Saves Girl From Drowning

Kenneth Morgan, 21, son of Policeman O. M. Morgan, enacted the role of a hero Tuesday afternoon when he plunged into Lake Arabia, near Lithonia, to rescue Miss Mary Jane Nabors, 19, of 182 Doane street, S. W., according to members of a picnic party.

Miss Nabors, swimming with the picnic party, was playfully "ducked" by a companion who then swam away and left her. Hearing her cries for help and seeing her struggling, Morgan dived from a high bank into the pond and swam with her to safety. Companions said Miss Nabors was near drowning but first aid revived her and she returned to her home.

DEMOCRATS' PLAN FOR RELIEF GAINS FAVOR IN SENATE

Garner Bill Ignored as Committee Approves $2,000,000,000 Proposal Despite Veto Threat.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—A $2,000,000,000 democratic relief program was put before the senate today in the face of a prospective veto from President Hoover.

Ignoring the Garner $2,300,000,000 bill which passed the house yesterday, the senate banking committee voted out the plan presented by senate democrats, including the controversial provision for a $500,000,000 public works bond issue.

Meanwhile democratic leaders were preparing to call for action in the senate the emergency bill approved by the banking committee yesterday to authorize the Reconstruction Corporation to lend $300,000,000 to states for direct relief to the jobless.

The action of the banking committee today placed before the senate the entire $2,300,000,000 program recently approved by the democratic steering and policy committees.

Program Divided. The committee, however, divided the program into two bills. The first, providing the $300,000,000 for direct relief, was advanced as an emergency program; the second as a long-range proposal.

There is little controversy over the $300,000,000 bill, as President Hoover has approved it in principle, and democratic leaders hoped to shore it through quickly.

There is great difference of opinion, however, over the $2,000,000,000 portion of the program which was approved today, calling for the $2,000,000,000 capitalization of the Reconstruction Corporation for self-liquidating construction loans.

The Garner bill did not reach the senate until after its committee had acted. It was referred to the banking committee, but Chairman Norbeck was indefinite about plans for its consideration.

Committee Approves. The democratic bill was approved by the committee on a vote of 7 to 4, with Chairman Norbeck and Senators Goldsborough, of Maryland; Townsend, of Delaware, and Carey, of Wyoming, all republicans, opposed.

Previously the committee had voted 9 to 6 against the administration's proposal for construction loans corporation to competitive private industry.

This law was incorporated in the bill introduced by Senator Barbour, with Chairman Norbeck and Senators Mills approved in testing before the committee yesterday.

Mills held that the program would do good unless it included loans to private industry.

The democratic bill had no such feature, but the committee did limit a provision for loans to limit dividend housing corporations.

SEABURY BRANDS WALKER 'UNFIT' TO HOLD OFFICE

Counsel to Hofstadter Investigating Body Submits Record of Hearing to Governor Roosevelt.

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—Mayor Walker was termed "unfit" to continue in office by Samuel Seabury, who dispatched tonight to Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt an analysis of testimony by the mayor for such action as the governor "may deem just and proper."

Seabury said he had "no request or petition to make in reference to this matter," but he made it clear that he was satisfied the evidence warranted removal of the mayor.

The record was sent to Albany in the care of a personal representative of Seabury, who said he was acting as a citizen and not as counsel for the Hofstadter legislative committee before which the mayor appeared.

The matter consisted of a transcript of the mayor's testimony, an analysis of the testimony and a letter by Seabury containing 15 conclusions which he said he had drawn from the testimony.

Offered As Citizen. "This record," said Seabury, "is presented to you by me in my individual capacity as a citizen of the state of New York and not as representative of, or as counsel to, the Hofstadter legislative committee."

My duty as counsel to this committee has been to adduce the facts that could be ascertained. That duty I have performed. I submit the record to you, as I did the record in the Farley case, not as formal charges, but for your information so that you may determine what shall be done.

Seabury announced his intention of submitting an analysis after Governor Roosevelt in a statement last Friday said "if the evidence in any case now before the legislative committee in their judgment or that of their counsel warrants it is time for the legislative committee and their counsel to stop talking and do something."

The governor also said "I act in each case definitely, positively and with due promptness."

Whether the governor would consider the matter from Seabury to be tantamount to formal charges and appropriate for action as such was not known.

Farley's Removal. Apparently Seabury was of the opinion that the governor would follow the procedure that led to the firing of and the subsequent removal of Sheriff Thomas Farley, Tammany.

VETERANS IGNORE PLEAS TO LEAVE

Stocks of Food Nearly Exhausted as Tattered 'Army' Holds Firm.

BY C. P. WILLIAMSON.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—The ragged veterans' army demanding bonus payment calmly grinned tonight in reply to police persuasion that it pack up and go home.

Walter W. Waters, of Portland, Ore., elected the fourth commander-in-chief in 48 hours, after a stormy committee session, said his 8,000 charges had decided to "disregard" a police invitation to evacuate tomorrow.

"Whenever the bonus is voted, we will be very glad to accept the police offer of free truckage out of the city," Waters said.

Chewing Equipment Galore Displayed by Dentists Here

Happy with the results of the first day's session of the Georgia Dental Association Wednesday, Dr. Harry B. Johnson, of Atlanta, president-elect of the association, left, is being congratulated by Dr. Robert F. Sullivan, of Savannah, Ga., president, right, while Dr. Thomas Connors, of Atlanta, chairman of the state clinics division, center, looks on. These three prominent dentists are attending the 64th annual meeting of the association, convening at the Biltmore. Staff photo by Sanders.

Molars, bicuspids, canines—in fact, teeth, and everything that goes with them, from pulling them out to putting them in, were much in evidence Wednesday at the first day's activities of the Georgia Dental Association, holding its 64th annual meeting at the Biltmore hotel through Friday.

And though some say the things they use to crack nuts with are the roots of all evil, the dental exhibits of varied shapes and forms of teeth were interesting and attractive, seeming far removed from an aching wisdom tooth or a swollen cheek.

The wear of false dentures would have found a veritable paradise Wednesday afternoon in the session of the state clinics in which dentists from over the state showed ingenious examples of their most improved bridgework and completely equipped plates, ready for the onslaughts of their most biter enemies, whether they be jaw-breakers or gum drops.

Robert F. Sullivan, of Savannah, Ga., president of the association, addressed the first general session of the dentists in the Pompeian room Wednesday morning, and Dean Raimundo de Ories, of St. Philip's cathedral, delivered the invocation.

Spoken of the Day. The Economic Importance of the Trained Dental Assistant was the topic of the day.

AGREEMENT SEEN ON MOST PLANK BY G. O. P. LEADERS

Authoritative Source, Accepted as Valid, Reveals Action on Issue Despite Capitol's Denial.

BY LYLE C. WILSON.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—(UP)—Republican leaders were informed today by an authoritative source that President Hoover had approved a prohibition resubmission plank in the republican platform.

The United Press was informed that the text was agreed upon and Postmaster-General Walter Brown and James R. Garfield Jr. arrived today with the Hoover prohibition plank in their pockets.

(Inquiries at the White House brought the response from one executive that no prohibition plank had been submitted to the president, therefore no plank could have been agreed upon. It was said no one was authorized to speak for the president and that no plank has been carried to Chicago by Mr. Brown or Mr. Garfield.)

Brown and Garfield—the latter will be chairman of the republican convention resolutions committee—conferred at the White House last night with Mr. Hoover and several cabinet officers. The republican national committee is to meet in Chicago tomorrow.

Fess To Plank. Presiding when Garfield and Brown present the president's proposal, it is revealed to the committee at all, will be one of the foremost of resubmission plank Mr. Hoover has carried to Chicago by Mr. Brown or Mr. Garfield.)

Brown has been the most forceful of Mr. Hoover's cabinet advisers in urging resubmission as the minimum concession to the anti-prohibition bloc in the republican party. To dry objections, Brown has replied in vigorous, unqualified language that unless republicans are willing to contemplate the resubmission of a floor plank even prohibition with a possibility of the repeal element stampeding the convention, the dyes in the party would be best advised to accept a resubmission plank.

The battle among Mr. Hoover's advisers has raged for months, with intensity increasing as the convention date approached. It has been acknowledged throughout that the resolution committee would offer to the convention a plank Mr. Hoover finally approved.

The only doubt as to convention behavior has centered around the floor fight threatening to erupt if the party refused to budge from the resubmission plank.

The department of justice said that Attorney-General Mitchell had investigated the appeal for commutation and had found no favorable recommendations from officials concerned in the case. The president alone could have commuted the sentence.

John R. Barclay, chief United States deputy marshal, carried King to the penitentiary after he reported to him at his office in the federal building. The two were accompanied by Clyde King Jr., son of the manufacturer. According to Barclay, King seemed to lose his temper as he rode to the penitentiary and showed no emotion when he was led into the barred doors shortly before 5 o'clock. When sent to his cell, King refused to sign a statement of his offense.

The manufacturer pleaded guilty to one count of a three-count indictment charging willful evasion of the income tax laws. The count was for the year of 1928 and involved an amount in excess of $20,000. The other two counts were dropped following sentence in federal court.

Twice since sentence was passed the manufacturer has been allowed 30-day respites by Judge William H. Barrett, who sentenced King two months ago. It was agreed that the second respite was to be the last.

King was due to start serving the sentence on May 30, but gained a brief respite in the form of a telegram from Sanford Bates, superintendent of prisons. The telegraphic message ordered United States Marshal Crawford to withhold action on the commitment.

Crawford Wednesday was notified by government radio of the department of justice's action on the application for a respite. He immediately informed King of the decision, telling him that he would be expected to report to start his term. King had been free under a $10,000 bond.

Rockefeller Viewpoint Denounced by Cannon

FAIRFIELD, Iowa, June 8.—(AP) Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in an address tonight expressed his regret at the "city-warped" viewpoint of John D. Rockefeller Jr., in his letter on prohibition repeal to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University.

"Mr. Rockefeller's attitude is doubtless sincere, but it is not surprising to those who know the influence which surround him," Cannon said, "living as he does where literally Satan's seat is, in the home city of Alfred E. Smith, of Jimmy Walker, and of the Tammany tiger."

M'ADOO PROPOSES SPECIAL ELECTION ON PROHIBITION

'People Themselves Should Be Given Opportunity To Decide Issue,' Says Former Treasury Head.

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—(AP)—William G. McAdoo declared tonight for a vote of the people in a special national election to settle the question of prohibition.

The former secretary of the treasury suggested a national referendum by which a direct vote of the people could be had upon repeal of the eighteenth amendment or upon whether it should be amended to give congress the power to regulate or prohibit the liquor traffic.

"The people themselves," he said, "should be given the opportunity to vote through a national referendum, authorized by act of congress."

"Suppose that a special session were called by the new president shortly after his inauguration March 4, 1933, and that the president was empowered to proclaim a national advisory referendum, after 90 days' notice, upon such question as the following: 'Shall the eighteenth amendment be repealed? Vote 'yes' or 'no.'"

"The text of the statement: 'In 1917, when the reaction for submission to the states of what is now the eighteenth amendment to the constitution was on its passage through the congress, I had an intense conversation with President Wilson about the matter. While it is not incumbent upon the president to approve or disapprove such a solution, he was deeply concerned about it.'"

"President Wilson thought it unwise to incorporate the prohibition in the amendment itself. He was convinced that it would be better to give congress the power to regulate or to prohibit the traffic. He said: 'The amendment is an attempt by the states to do what congress should do.'"

PARTY PLATFORM WILL POINT WAY, GOVERNOR THINKS

New Yorker Condemns "Too Much Delay and Debate" and Foresees Definite Moves in Next Congress.

NEW AMENDMENT STILL IS FAVORED

Prospective Democratic Nominee Insists He Has Not Changed in Disapproval of Present Laws.

BY ROBERT ST. JOHN.
NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—In a vigorous call for "action" on the prohibition question, Governor Roosevelt tonight said there had been too much delay and debate, and expressed confidence the democratic platform would "clearly indicate" a method of repealing the eighteenth amendment.

The governor, a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, also declared he was confident that "in the next congress practical machinery will be put into actual effect."

In answer to questions submitted to him at Albany by telephone, Roosevelt firmly stated his stand on prohibition had not changed since 1930, when he came out for "elimination" of the "force and effect of the eighteenth amendment" by a new constitutional amendment.

He pointed out the following paragraphs in a letter he wrote to United States Senator Robert E. Wagner of New York, at that time:

Crux of Matter. "The crux of the matter is that the eighteenth amendment has not furthered the cause of a greater temperance in our population, but on the other hand (quoting from language used in a resolution adopted by the American Legion) 'it has fostered excessive drinking of strong intoxicants and has led to corruption and hypocrisy,' has brought about 'disregard for law and order' and has flooded the country with untaxed and illicit liquor."

"I personally share this opinion. 'Literally dozens of schemes have been proposed by well-meaning citizens seeking means and methods of improving the existing situation while at the same time' had been suggested amendment in full force and effect."

"The language of the eighteenth amendment is so direct and so clear that it seems to me the time has come when these people should no longer try to beat about the bush."

"It is not merely a matter of the Volstead act or the Jones act or any other piece of mere legislation, federal or state, under the eighteenth amendment—it is the amendment itself."

BOARD BALANCES FINANCE SHEET

All Employes Must Take Payless Vacation Under Committee Plan.

Mayor James L. Key, the 39 members of council, school employees and every other employee of the city government will feel the economic stress in the recommendations of the finance committee to balance the June finance sheet. Council Friday afternoon will meet to consider the June fiscal measure, a balanced sheet because of the work completed Wednesday afternoon by the finance group.

The $248,000 which the city proper had to absorb and the $62,000 which the school department had to absorb to balance the budget have been provided for through a system of drastic economy, Councilman James L. Wells, chairman of the finance committee, said.

Salient features of the balanced sheet follow:
The true bills against Borglum were voted after the sculptor had destroyed his models for the Stone Mountain memorial. The bills first incurred in 1927 later withdrawn and reinstated on September 9, 1929.

Three indictments pending against Gutzon Borglum, famed sculptor, in DeKalb superior court, were nolle prossed Wednesday by Judge John B. Hutcheson on recommendation of Solicitor-General Claude C. Smith.

The indictments charged Borglum with malicious mischief, larceny from the house and simple larceny. J. G. Tucker, the sculptor's assistant, was named in two of the three bills. The indictments against him also were dismissed.

Foes of Prohibition Hold Advantage in Florida Vote

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 8.—(AP)—Candidates advocating repeal of the eighteenth amendment or a referendum of the liquor question led the ticket in the four congressional districts of yesterday's democratic primary.

Mark Wilcox, West Palm Beach lawyer, who ran against Representative Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the late dry crusader, William Jennings Bryan, on a platform for repeal was 4,931 votes ahead on the basis of returns from 301 of the fourth district's 419 precincts.

The vote was: Owen 26,963; Wilcox 31,894.
Jacksonville's mayor, John T. Alsop Jr., a wet who advocates referendum, and J. W. Sears, who voted dry while he represented the fourth district for many years in congress, but is for referendum, were the leading candidates in the contest for congressman-at-large and appeared certain to enter a second primary together.

The vote in congressman-at-large race: Alsop 20,316; W. D. Bell, ardent dry, 11,520; Asher Frank, zealous, 4,346; Lester Jennings, repeal, 8,635, and Sears 21,916. The count was from 641 of the state's 1,283 precincts.

Tom Yon, incumbent in the third district, representing the agricultural sections of west Florida, and a dry, lagged behind Millard Caldwell, 2,933 precincts was Caldwell 8,713; R. G. Patterson 4,618 and Yon 8,491. Patterson also is for referendum.

Representative Herbert J. Drane, who has voted dry consistently, but promised to cast his ballot for a referendum if returned to congress, had more than 4,000 majority over his nearest opponent in the first congressional district race.

To Florida's race for the gubernatorial nomination held the spotlight of the primary. On the basis of returns from 739 of the state's 1,283 precincts former Governor John W. Martin led with 32,577. His nearest opponent, Cuy A. Hardee, also a former governor, had 26,827, and Dave Sholtz, Daytona Beach, was third with 24,947.

The vote in congressman-at-large race: Alsop 20,316; W. D. Bell, ardent dry, 11,520; Asher Frank, zealous, 4,346; Lester Jennings, repeal, 8,635, and Sears 21,916. The count was from 641 of the state's 1,283 precincts.

GUARD KILLS PRISONER AFTER SECOND ATTACK

TIFFIN, Ga., June 8.—(AP)—James Lowe, a negro convict, was shot and killed by a guard near here after officers said, he twice had attacked the guard.

The shooting took place at a bridge across the Alapaha river, where a crew of convicts were at work yesterday. Jim Rowland, the guard, was standing on the edge of a hole, newspaper reports here said, when the negro lunged at him with a shovel. When he did, one of the other negroes called to him to "watch out." Rowland turned and saw the negro. He drew his pistol and fired three times. The negro died en route to town. The body was buried in the negro cemetery near here.

The day preceding the shooting, Lowe, reports here said, grabbed Rowland's pistol while the latter was occupied with some bridge repairs. Rowland wheeled and struck the negro with a square and knocked him unconscious. Warden J. G. Nelson says he warned Rowland to be on his guard against Lowe, whom he considered a dangerous prisoner. Lowe was one of several negroes brought here recently from Fulton county, where he was under a sentence for burglary.

HOTEL MEN TO MEET AT SEA ISLAND BEACH

Georgia Association To Hold Annual Convention Friday and Saturday.

SEA ISLAND BEACH, Ga., June 8.—Between 75 and 100 hotel men are expected to attend the 26th annual summer meeting of the Georgia Hotel Men's Association which will be held at The Cloister, Friday and Saturday. Features of the meeting will be addresses by Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr., and Abit Nix, of Athens, gubernatorial candidates.

Georgia Students Live in Tent To Make Their Year at College

Ernest Huff, of Polk county, and Reuben Glazier, of Coweta, who lived in a tent and cooked their own meals for the final year of their course at the Georgia State College of Agriculture at Athens.

BY TURNER HIERS.
ATHENS, Ga., June 8.—By doing their own cooking and sleeping in a tent, two Georgia State College of Agriculture students were able to complete the past school year at college with an expenditure of only $7.50 per month each for room, board and laundry.

Both students, Ernest Huff and Reuben Glazier, are farm boys from the mountainous section of Georgia and are studying courses in agriculture. Training they received as members of their local 4-H Clubs before entering college enabled them to "carry on" in spite of financial handicaps, they said.

Huff, the elder of the two, upon returning to school two days late last fall on account of a summer job he had to complete, found his position as proctor in one of the dormitories had already been given to someone else. He had little money, but decided to find a way to finish his senior year. Finding a partner and purchasing a second-hand tent was his final decision, and as a result he has a bachelor of science in agriculture degree and is prepared to realize his life ambition of becoming a county agent and helping other rural boys and girls become agricultural leaders.

Before entering college, Huff had lived on and helped manage his father's farm in Polk county, until he became dissatisfied with the small country school where he had finished the ninth grade. He then entered the Berry Schools at Rome, earning his way by building fires and doing household chores in the home of Miss Martha Berry, founder of the institution.

Ernest won several prizes in 4-H Club competition, and then he went on trip to the international livestock show for fitting and showing a sheep which was grand champion at the Southeastern Fair in Atlanta. He was awarded several scholarships to Camp Wilkins, the state meeting ground where Georgia 4-H Club members receive instruction in farm short courses.

At college, Huff became a leader in the many clubs and campus activities. He was elected president of the Agricultural Club, composed of all students who study agriculture, and was chosen for membership in Alpha Zeta and Alpha Chi, two of the most fraternalities for agricultural students. Glazier, co-owner of the tent and sharer of the household duties, is making a record in animal husbandry and will be a senior next school year. He, too, has made a record which gave him membership in Alpha Zeta, the highest honor to which an agricultural student may aspire. President of the Saddle and Sirolo, business manager of the Georgia Agriculturalist, and associate editor of the Agricultural Engineering annual are among the campus positions which he will serve when school reconvenes this fall.

The site of their "nine-months" residence is on a wooded hillside on the campus of the State College of Agriculture, which puts them within easy reach of their classes. A nearby spring furnished water for drinking and cooking purposes.

FRANKLIN ATTACKS ELECTRIC LEVY BILL

VALDOSTA, Ga., June 8.—(AP)—Omer W. Franklin, president of the Municipal Utilities Rate Association of Georgia, today launched an attack against the passage of a bill by the national congress providing for a 3 percent levy on electricity consumers.

He also attacked the business methods of the Georgia Power Company, saying their lobbyists "are almost ubiquitous."

When the legislature is in session, he said, they go from senate to house and "if legislators are entertained in any part of the state, you will find them there."

YOU remember him when he was fresh from college—lithe and healthy and fit. He wants to keep as young and as athletic as he was then.

Here's a delicious ready-to-eat cereal that will help. Made especially for active people. Serve Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes.

These better bran flakes are full of a flavor men love. But even more important, they're filled with whole-wheat nourishment. Whole wheat is a favorite food for active people. Nature has made it a storehouse of the food elements that build and nourish. And just enough bran to be mildly laxative. An ideal dish for the whole family.

Have Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes for breakfast tomorrow. For your own lunch. For the children's supper. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. In the red-and-green package. Quality guaranteed.

The government gave notice of an appeal.

10 COMPANIES REFUSE BOND FOR CURTIS

FLEMINGTON, N. J., June 8.—(AP)—An assertion that 10 bonding companies refused to furnish his bail because they were "afraid" was made tonight by John Hughes Curtis, Norfolk shipbuilder awaiting trial on a charge of misdirecting the Lindbergh baby search.

In his first public statement since he was incarcerated May 18, Curtis declared the only reason he did not post bond was that he could not get it. He denied he himself was "afraid of anyone."

Thoughtful Gesture Brings Sudden Death

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, June 8.—(AP)—John Maki stepped on a lone iron spike when he waded into Lake Winnipeg, near Riverton, Manitoba, for a swim.

To prevent others from injury by stepping on the spike, he picked it up and threw it over his shoulder. Today his brother, Stephen, died of concussion of the brain, caused by being struck on the head by the spike.

BUILDING INCREASES IN SOUTHERN STATES

BALTIMORE, June 8.—(AP)—More than $55,000,000 worth of building and engineering contracts in the 16 southern states, the largest monthly total this year, are reported for May in the current issue of the Manufacturers' Record.

The figure represents a 35 per cent increase over awards for April and compares with $39,047,000 in the same month last year.

The publication points out, however, that the comparison with last year is "an encouraging showing when it is considered that the valuation of construction awards each month this year, for the country in general, has been at a rate of about one-third the total for the corresponding month of last year."

Total awards in the south for the first five months of the year are given in the review as more than $124,000,000, along with an estimate that inclusion of small contracts not reported would raise the sum above $165,000,000.

Road, paving and bridge construction continued to gain last month as contrasted with months ago. Roadwork aggregated more than $14,200,000 compared with $12,833,000 in April. Proposed work of the character announced last month totaled $16,250,000, and the building survey predicts a sharp upward trend in that field should the bond market improve.

The story adds that indications the federal government may provide funds for public works of this character has revived talk of the projected $15,000,000 bridge over the Mississippi at New Orleans and the $10,000,000 span over Chesapeake bay.

City, county, government and state projects let to contract last month aggregated more than $10,482,000 and miscellaneous projects $6,220,000. Sewers, drainage and water works jobs came to $1,548,000, while apartment houses and hotels, association and fraternal structures, bank and office buildings, church edifices, store and school buildings made up the remainder. Dwellings costing over $10,000 accounted for $735,000 of the total.

2 Witnesses Missing In Egan Murder Case

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—(AP)—The unexplained disappearance of two important witnesses against Frank J. Egan, suspended public defender, and two of his followers charged with murdering Mrs. Jessie Scott Hughes, friend and benefactress of Egan, made prosecuting officers uneasy today.

Egan and his accused employees were arraigned but they withheld their pleas and were ordered to appear June 14. As Egan was being led to the courtroom from his cell a man sprang from a row of spectators screaming:

"So they got you at last; I'm one of your victims."

Police said the man was Edward J. Cook, whose late wife was a client of Egan's. Her death last February was attributed to overindulgence in alcoholic drink.

Deputy District Attorney L. M. Golden said his case against the ousted public official would be "weakened" without the witnesses. He declined to name them.

The trio was indicted after Doran, former chauffeur for Egan, confessed he and Timm killed Mrs. Hughes on Egan's orders.

CHARLES DAWES HINTED AS NEW INSULT HEAD

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—The Times says Charles G. Dawes, who Monday announced his resignation as head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is reported planning to engage in the rehabilitation of the extensive Insull enterprises, principally the Middle West Utilities System.

If true, he would represent the large group of Chicago and New York banks which share control of the company as a result of the default of various Insull bank loans. Samuel Insull resigned as a receiver on Tuesday.

RELEASE OF PRISONER DENIED BY U. S. COURT

NEW ORLEANS, June 8.—(AP)—A decision of the Atlanta court freeing Joe E. Perry from the Atlanta federal penitentiary was reversed here today by the United States fifth district court with one judge dissenting. Perry had received two sentences of 18 months each to run successively. He was paroled, but was returned when he violated the parole, records showed. The prisoner brought habeas corpus action and was released. He claimed that he should have been credited with good time behavior. A. C. Aderhold, warden of the penitentiary, appealed the lower court decision. The circuit court ruled that the time to be given was considered as a single sentence, and that Perry was entitled to no "good time allowance."

2 CAROLINA FAITHS FORM CONFERENCE

RALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—(AP)—The conference of Congregational and Christian churches of the Carolinas was formed here today at the closing session of a two-day joint meeting of the Christian and Congregational conferences.

The merger brings under the conference approximately 150 churches in the two states. Dr. C. H. Rowland, of Greensboro, was named president; the Rev. J. Edward Kirby, of Raleigh, vice president, and Miss Ruth Sargeant, of Southern Pines, secretary.

The officers will draft a constitution and by-laws and present them at a conference next spring.

MacFADDEN MAY SELL GRAPHIC TO EMPLOYEES

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—Announcement of a plan to sell the Evening Graphic to its employees was made today by Bernard MacFadden, founder and chief owner.

It is understood that the new corporation will consist of 20,000 shares of non-par value non-voting Class B stock, with a 6 per cent annual dividend. The employees will begin taking up stock from their next week's salary. Ralph Nicholson, general manager of the Graphic and other MacFadden newspapers, said.

U. S. ROAD AID FUNDS APPROVED IN SENATE

CHARLES E. ELDER DIES AT BARNESVILLE

Former Mayor and Gordon
Institute Trustee Was 81
Years of Age.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., June 8.—Charles Edward Elder, 81, one of Barnesville's leading citizens, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Malcolm Jones Jr., in Macon Tuesday night after a long illness.

He had for a number of years served his town and county. At the time of his death he was chairman of the board of trustees of a First Methodist church and vice chairman of the board of trustees of Gordon Institute. He had been a Gordon trustee 40 years. He was a former mayor of Barnesville and former county school superintendent of Pike county.

Surviving Mr. Elder are his children, Mrs. Charles H. Perdue, Macon; Mrs. Douglas Lewis, Savannah; Miss Ruth Elder, Macon; Mrs. Malcolm Jones Jr., Macon; and Mrs. Caroline Elder Brown, Barnesville, and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the First Methodist church here at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Dr. Ed F. Cook, pastor of Vineville Methodist church, in Macon; the Rev. John Paxon Erwin, pastor of the Barnesville Methodist church, and the Rev. Harry V. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Barnesville, will officiate. Interment will be in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery at sundown. The Civitan Club, board of trustees of Gordon and board of trustees of the Methodist church will act as honorary escort.

Magnate Gives Millions For Cancer Research

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—(AP)—The death of a beloved son three years ago has led to the creation here of a $2,000,000 foundation for a world-wide cancer research.

The moving spirit of the new force to battle the dread disease is William H. Donner, of Villanova, retired steel manufacturer of Pittsburgh, who was today elected president of the International Cancer Research Foundation, a Pennsylvania corporation.

Mr. Donner, it is understood, has placed at the disposal of the foundation cash and securities on the basis of today's values amounting to $2,000,000. This was set aside by Mr. Donner as a trust in 1929 when his son, Joseph W. Donner, died in Buffalo.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., June 8.—(AP)—The body of a man who died here yesterday was identified early tonight as that of William J. McChesney, former treasurer of Iowa State University.

A hemorrhage of the lung, followed by a heart attack, caused the death of McChesney, who was known locally as W. J. Andrews.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, June 8.—(AP)—William J. McChesney, whose death was reported today in dispatches from Daytona Beach, Fla., had been sought for several weeks for prosecution on charges of embezzlement of funds of the University of Iowa, of which he had been treasurer.

He also faced several civil suits brought by prominent Iowa City residents seeking accounting of funds placed with him during his tenure as president of the First National bank and the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, of this city. Both banks are now defunct.

DO YOU INHALE?

Silence
may be golden

...but is that why other cigarette advertising is generally silent on this question?

WHEN the truth hurts—it's only natural to avoid the subject! Inhaling has long been an "untouchable" topic in cigarette advertising. And no wonder! In every tobacco leaf—even the finest, the mildest—nature hides certain impurities which, when not removed,
are unkind to delicate membranes!

And since, knowingly or unknowingly, every smoker inhales some part of the smoke from his or her cigarette, Lucky Strike developed that great scientific process which removes certain impurities. Luckies created that process.
Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? More than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

MEANS' 'SWINDLE' BARED TO COURT

Mrs. McLean and U. S. District Attorney Tell Story of Ransom Fraud.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Edward B. McLean, estranged wife of the Washington Post publisher, took the witness stand today to tell a jury her strange story of being swindled by a man named B. Means of $104,000 she paid him to recover the kidnapped and murdered Lindbergh baby.

The society woman testified in Means' trial on charges of larceny and embezzlement of the money after the prosecution asserted that, before Mrs. McLean hired Means to contact the kidnapers, Means had approached a connection of the Lindbergh family with proposals for negotiations.

Means, the big detective who once investigated for the justice department, and who served time in federal prison for prohibition violation, fled his accusers unperturbed in the District of Columbia supreme court.

The amazing chronology of Means' alleged negotiations was given to the court by United States Attorney Leo A. Rorer before a jury of eleven men and one woman.

Lindbergh Contact.

The prosecutor told about an hour before Mrs. McLean telephoned Means last March 4, Means had asked Robert F. Fleming, a Maryland real estate man, to put in contact with Colonel M. Robert Guggenheim, brother of Harry Guggenheim and a friend of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh. Fleming arranged to meet Guggenheim the same day, Rorer said, but Means failed to keep it because Mrs. McLean entered the picture. Several days later, however, Means met Guggenheim and several others at Fleming's home, Rorer continued, and there it was arranged that Means should deliver the baby to Guggenheim. Guggenheim secured the use of the private automobile of the Austrian minister, Rorer said, for the delivery of the baby, but never afterward heard from Means.

The prosecutor told of Means' alleged negotiations, carried on with colorful details of underworld verbiage, machine guns to insure the "kidnapers" against false moves by Mrs. McLean, and with representations by Means that he was in contact not only with the real kidnapers, but with those with whom John H. Curtis, of Norfolk, supposedly was negotiating, and with those to whom the "Jasfale" of the want ads actually paid $50,000 in a futile attempt to recover the baby.

Vain Search.

Telling how Mrs. McLean borrowed $100,000 in cash from the National Metropolitan bank and handed it over to Means—for ransom—in the presence of the Rev. Francis Hurney, a Catholic priest, Attorney Rorer also described how the society woman went to South Carolina and the Mexican border in the hope of receiving the baby.

Then Rorer told of continued promises to return the baby and later excuses by Means, until finally Mrs. McLean demanded the money back, later bringing in her lawyers. Rorer said that Means' explanation was that he gave the $100,000 to a strange man in near-by Alexandria, Va., when the man "identified himself by using the number eleven."

Rorer declared Mrs. McLean had instructed Means to deliver the money "to Father Hurney, and to nobody else."

DENTISTS GATHER FOR MEETING HERE

Assistant, Miss Ruth F. Rogers, president of the American Dental Association, in the principal address of the morning, narrated the value of the assistant in regards to the comfort of the patient and in aiding with outside contacts.

Following Miss Rogers' talk the dentists unanimously changed the name of its body from the Georgia State Dental Society to its present cognomen, the Georgia Dental Association.

Afterwards the gathering attended the oral hygiene luncheon at the hotel, and reconvened in the afternoon for the dental clinics. Dr. A. C. Fones, nationally known oral hygienist, spoke briefly at the luncheon. The progressive table clinics were put on by dentists prominent in their field, and showed the latest development and improvement each had worked out in his studies.

Dr. C. J. Hollister, of Harrisburg, Pa., chief of the dental division of the state department of health, was scheduled to speak Wednesday night on "A Problem Confronting the Dental Professions." Dr. Hollister arrived in Atlanta Wednesday morning from Milwaukee, where he spoke to a dental gathering Tuesday night. He will leave Atlanta by plane this morning for Jackson, Miss., where he will address the Mississippi Dental Association tonight.

Featuring today's program will be more clinics, three important addresses, election of officers, and tonight the annual banquet and ball. Addresses will be made by Dr. F. C. Elliot, of the University of Tennessee, college of dentistry, Memphis, Tenn., on the "One-Piece Cast Removable Bridge"; Dr. Clayton H. Gracey, of Detroit, Mich., on "The Management of a Specific Average Periodontoclasia," and Dr. John B. LaDue, of Chicago, Ill., on "Practical Occlusion in Full Denture Construction."

Dr. Harry B. Johnson, of Atlanta, is president-elect of the association. Friday, before the meeting is adjourned, new officers will be installed and loving cups will be presented to state dentists who have done outstanding work during the past year.

AGREEMENT SEEN ON MOIST PLANK BY G. O. P. LEADERS

Its 1928 stand in favor of prohibition.

Wet and dry republicans in the senate of late have organized to sway Mr. Hoover to their views. The extent to which the anti-prohibition element has triumphed cannot be gauged until the text of the Hoover plank becomes known. It was established 10 days ago on good authority that Mr. Hoover was favorably inclined to a double-barreled prohibition plank which would first pledge the party to law enforcement and second to re-submission of the question to the people through legislatures or conventions.

Dryers are prepared to contest every technical point involved in the dispute, and if they must accept re-submission they will undertake to have the question passed upon by state legislatures. The wets want state conventions elected for the sole purpose of determining the prohibition issue.

The so-called "country club" plank revised last Sunday at a meeting of republican leaders on the invitation of Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, stipulated the convention issue. That plan would have offered the convention an opportunity to

Action Expected Soon In Church Site Deal

There was no change Wednesday in the status of negotiations which, if completed, will result in St. Philip's cathedral acquiring a new site in the junction of Peachtree road and Andrews drive.

It was said by one of the persons on the inside of the deal that it was expected that it would be consummated in a few days, but that the church had not yet given its signature to the agreement.

Under the tentative plan the church would acquire 400 feet on each thoroughfare from C. C. McGuire, at a price said to be around $50,000, upon which a cathedral would be erected in units. A meeting was held Tuesday but no definite decision was reached.

"King" Orders Hoboes To Avoid Washington

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 8.—(AP)—Jeff Davis, "king of hoboes," sent word to "jungle" and "tanks" throughout the nation today for hoboes to stay out of Washington, and give World War veterans free rein in seeking payment on their bonus certificates.

The orders are to be passed by word of mouth, circulated by hoboes reaching here while passing through to east or west, north or south.

His instruction, Davis said, followed word from Washington that sent word to "jungle" and "tanks" had issued a call for the wanderers to gather in Washington and demand "good food and clean beds."

pass upon retention, revision or repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

Congressional dry leaders were disappointed, somewhat irritated, but not surprised when word of Mr. Hoover's reported approval of re-submission reached them. It was suggested that White House strategy would be to deny any prohibition plank had been agreed upon so that responsibility for the final decision might at least be shared by convention.

NEW EXCISE TAXES TO INCREASE PRICES

Excise tax which is effective on June 21. Lubricating oil, 4 cents a gallon; brewers' wort, 15 cents a gallon; malt syrup, 3 cents a gallon; grape concentrates, 20 cents a gallon.

Tax on Tires, Tubes.

Tires and tubes, 2-1/4 and 4 cents a pound, respectively. Whether this will be absorbed in whole or part by the manufacturers is not determined.

Toilet preparations, 10 per cent; dentifrices, 5 per cent, probably absorbed by the manufacturer.

Furs, 10 per cent.

Jewelry, 10 per cent on amounts over $3; plated silverware exempt.

Automobiles, 3 per cent; trucks, 2 per cent; parts and accessories, 2 per cent.

Radio and phonograph equipment, 5 per cent, probably absorbed by the manufacturers.

Mechanical refrigerators, 5 per cent.

Sporting goods and cameras, 10 per cent.

Firearms and shells, 10 per cent; matches, wood, 2 cents per 1,000; paper, 1-2 per cent per 1,000.

Candy, 2 per cent.

Levy on Soft Drinks.

Soft drinks, various rates ranging from 2 to 9 cents a gallon, probably absorbed by the manufacturer.

Electrical energy, 3 per cent on sales for domestic and commercial purposes, probably passed on to the consumer.

Gasoline, 1 cent a gallon, added to cost and collected by dealers and in turn returned to the government.

Oil must pay a tariff of 1-2 cent a gallon on coal, 10 cents per 100 pounds; lumber, $3 per 1,000 feet; copper, 4 cents a pound.

Miscellaneous taxes include long-distance telephone calls, 10 cents between 50 cents and $1; 15 cents $1 to $2; 20 cents over $2; telegraphed messages, 5 per cent; cable and radio, 10 cents.

Theater and amusement tickets, 3 cent per 10 cents on admissions over 40 cents, making the tax to the higher priced theaters in Atlanta around 5 cents.

Oil pipe line charges, 4 per cent.

Safe Deposit Boxes.

Safe deposit boxes, 10 per cent of rental, collected and paid by the bank and charged to the holder.

Checks, 2 cents each. The accounts of depositors will be charged with this tax and the bank will remit to the government every month. Counter checks are exempt.

Roats, various rates.

The above miscellaneous taxes are effective on June 21, except the tax on the use of boats, which is effective on July 1.

Stamp taxes on issues of bonds of capital stock, 10 cents per $100.

Stock transfers, including exchange operations, 4 cents per $100 par; no par, 5 cents for shares selling for over $20. Bond transfers, 4 cents per $100 par.

Conveyances, including real estate deeds, 50 cents on $100 to $500; 50 cents per $500 in excess. Produce sales for future delivery, 5 cents per $100.

Increase in Postal Rates.

The first-class letter rate will be 3 cents, effective on July 6. Rates on second-class matter, which are not yet known at the Atlanta postoffice, will go into effect on July 6. The 3-cent stamps have been ordered, as have additional 1-cent stamps for the use of persons who have envelopes stamped with 2-cent stamps.

It is difficult in the above classifications to state just what taxes will be paid directly by the consumer and those which will be absorbed by the manufacturer. In the case of the postage tax and the tax on bank checks and gasoline, the consumer will pay directly. The manufacturers, producer and importer of the following articles are required to make returns and pay taxes, the inference being that these will absorb the tax, while others not specified, will pass it on to the consumer.

Lubricating oil, brewers' wort, grape concentrate, automobile, furs, chewing gum, toilet preparations, candy, jewelry, radios, refrigerators, sporting goods, fire arms, cameras, matches, soft drinks, tires and tubes and gasoline.

DOCKET FORGERIES PROBED BY JURORS

25 Witnesses Appear as Quiz Is Begun; Second Session Today.

The long-expected grand jury probe of alleged tampering with papers in the court of City Recorder John Cone started Wednesday morning with the grand jury in special session and is to be continued again this morning at another extra session of that body.

A total of 25 witnesses was summoned and questioned by the grand jury Wednesday, the list including 17 patrolmen, two professional bondsmen and Recorder Cone himself. Others who were summoned to testify before the body included Oscar H. Pendley, secretary of the police board, and clerks of the recorder.

The grand jury took no action Wednesday. Solicitor-General John A. Boykin, who is personally conducting the investigation with the grand jury, said that the probe will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning, but he would not state when he thought it probable that bills would be drawn.

The alleged irregularities, according to police authorities, show that in many instances the recorder's register has been marked to show cases as "dismissed" or "discharged" when in reality they had never been tried and the bonds originally posted by professional bondsmen had been returned to the bondsmen.

Several of the posse expressed the belief the two desperadoes were protected by steel vests and other armor.

Louisiana Legislature Votes for Referendum

BATON ROUGE, La., June 8.—(AP)—The Louisiana legislature today placed its approval on a resolution by Senator Waldo Dugas, Lafayette, to submit a referendum on the eighteenth amendment to the people of Louisiana in the November election.

The house of representatives approved the measure, 71 to 25. It was previously voted through the senate.

Following up their advance, anti-prohibition forces in the senate shortly before noon pushed through a second Dugas resolution, 22 to 18, to also submit repeal of the Hood act, state prohibition enforcement statute, at the polls in November. This resolution was sent to the house.

The state assembly had rejected similar referendum proposals a half dozen times in previous sessions, but little opposition was raised today.

'PRETTY BOY' FLOYD AGAIN ELUDES POSSE

ADA, Okla., June 8.—(AP)—Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd, notorious Oklahoma outlaw, and George Birdwell, his aide, apparently had eluded another posse today.

A dozen officers who went to a house near Stonewall last night on a tip from Birdwell and Birdwell were there, said two men who escaped under fire were the long-sought bank robbers and slayers.

None of the posse was wounded and it is believed Floyd and Birdwell escaped unscathed.

Several of the posse expressed the belief the two desperadoes were protected by steel vests and other armor.

FIVE BODIES REMOVED FROM RUINS OF HOTEL

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 8.—(AP)—Blackened ruins of the five-story Ellington apartments had yielded up ten bodies tonight with three residents of the building yet unaccounted for.

Five bodies were removed late today, more than 36 hours after the structure was wrapped in flames in the wake of a terrific explosion.

PENSION IS APPROVED FOR DOCTOR'S WIDOW

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—The senate today passed and sent to the house a bill by Senator Long, democrat, Louisiana, providing a pension of $125 a month to Frances Agramonte, widow of Dr. Aristides Agramonte, one of the band of scientists whose experiments in Cuba led to control of yellow fever.

Student Is Wedded To Music Professor

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 8.—(AP)—Miss Sairde McAllister, 26, Tupelo, Miss., who entered Blue Mountain College at Blue Mountain, Miss., to study music under Professor Heinrich Pfitzner, 64, who married to the professor here today. The ceremony was performed in the probate courtroom by Squire J. O. Sims.

Scalp Trouble Lasted Three Years. Healed by Cuticura.

"My trouble began on my neck and scalp. They broke out with small pimples that were hard and red. The pimples festered and scaled over, and the itching and burning were so severe that I scratched and caused eruptions. My hair was lifeless and dry, and fell out. I could not sleep and the breaking out disfigured my neck. The trouble lasted three years."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment so purchased some and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one and a half boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Ernest E. Houser, R. F. D. 3, Benham, Va.

Maryland Governor Warns Against Discarding Sound Principles.

BALTIMORE, June 8.—(AP)—In a radio address here tonight, Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland, warned against discarding policies "which are sound and which are American."

"The danger," he said, "is that the perfectly understandable pressure on government from every side to do something to stop the panic . . . may lead us away from American principles and practices . . . and into the ways of dangerous experimentation, of panic-born remedies and the be-

Suicides in Atlanta Below U. S. Average

Suicide in Atlanta during 1931 were far below the average for the United States, according to Frederick L. Hoffman, statistician for an insurance publication, who said that during last year 20.5 persons in every 100,000 people in the country took their lives. Atlanta suicides were 14.8 for every 100,000 population.

New York led in suicides among the larger cities with a ratio of 28.3 per 100,000, while Boston was the lowest with 14.4 per 100,000. Macon, Ga., reported 35.2, and Savannah listed 31.7 of every 100,000 population.

ginnings of socialism, if not of communism."

This address was delivered over a coast-to-coast network, under the auspices of the democratic victory campaign fund.

"Critics and pessimists," he said, "may find fault with our form of government. It is in truth not sacred, and we need not venerate it unduly or extol it too highly. But the cardinal thing is, it has worked. It has met successfully all the crises of our national existence in peace and war."

The republican national administration was criticized for its "inefficient and ineffectual" efforts to cope with the depression crisis.

This administration, said the Maryland governor, who is an announced candidate for the democratic nomination for president, "has forfeited the right to shape our country's destinies for four years more."

He concluded with the statement he believed "the American people will give a sovereign mandate to the democratic party to undertake that task and responsibility."

BELL SAYS ACTION ON COUNTY STANDS

Committee Vice Chairman States Views of Fulton Group in Controversy.

George L. Bell Jr., vice chairman of the Fulton county democratic executive committee, makes answer to the subcommittee of the state democratic committee which has taken the position that the election of the Fulton county committee by the primary of last March is invalid, and that the county committee must be chosen at the state primary of September 14.

It is to be recalled that the county committee was chosen at the county primary in March, and by perhaps the largest vote ever polled in the county. The county committee has always been chosen at this primary.

Vice Chairman Bell takes the position that it is the intention of the state committee to provide that county committees be chosen on a uniform date throughout the state after this year, there will be objection on the part of Fulton county, but that the committee from this county, having already been chosen for the ensuing term according to time-honored custom, the action of the county will stand for the period for which the committee has been elected.

Mr. Bell's statement.

The statement of Vice Chairman Bell is as follows:

"The Fulton county democratic executive committee wishes to correct misstatements of fact that have recently appeared in the press with reference to the so-called 'petition' addressed to the state democratic executive committee concerning the election held last March in Fulton county."

"The first news of this so-called petition was received by us when three gentlemen came to Atlanta about ten days ago and requested an interview with certain officers of the Fulton county committee."

"The undersigned, accompanied by Major Oscar Palmour, members of the committee, and members of the subcommittee also, conferred with Messrs. Garrett, Bloch and Beasley, and stated to these gentlemen the position of the Fulton county committee with reference to this controversy."

"It was made perfectly clear at this interview that the Fulton county committee had been duly and legally elected at the March primary in which all other county officials had been nominated, and that it was not proposed to hold any other election for membership on the Fulton county committee."

"By Mr. Garrett agreeing to hold an additional election for this office, Major Palmour and I stated most emphatically that this would not be done."

"The only reference made by us to the election of county committees in a September primary was that if, in the future, it seemed desirable to establish a uniform custom throughout the state there would probably be no objection to holding this election in September rather than in March. This statement had no bearing whatsoever on the election recently held."

"The so-called petition which was exhibited for the first time to the representatives of the county committee contained nothing but misstatements of fact of such a glaring character that they were discussed only very briefly."

"With reference to the legality of the March primary at which the county committee was elected, it was stated by us that, following the usual custom in this county, candidates for places on the executive committee were duly entered and placed on the ballot and were voted upon by Fulton county electors."

"It is not conceded now and never has been by the Fulton county committee that the state committee or any body save the electorate of Fulton county has any jurisdiction over the county committee."

"Should it be granted for the sake of argument, and for the sake of argument alone, that this committee is subject to the jurisdiction of a state committee, under their own rules, the method of selection of committeemen is left entirely in the hands of the local authorities, and it was only after the election in March that a small group of state committeemen endeavored to nullify the action of Fulton county voters in that primary."

"The election of the county committee having taken place in March in conformity to the laws of the state, the then existing rules of the state committee, and the customs of the party in this locality, the committee does not propose to require the gentlemen who have been duly elected to run an additional race to satisfy the whims of a small disgruntled group of politicians."

"The true motives of these petitioners in endeavoring to create discord and dissension in the Fulton county organization are not clearly disclosed by the somewhat incoherent language of the petition and prayers made to the state committee, but perhaps in time these motives will become more apparent."

"The county committee is not to be put in the attitude of being in any sense antagonistic to our brothers of the state committee since we all have a common purpose to serve, and likewise it does not propose to be dictated to by the state committee in the conduct of its purely local affairs."

"The only 'boss' of the Fulton county executive committee is the electorate of Fulton county."

BOMBING FROM AIR HIT BY ARMS BODY

GENEVA, June 8.—(AP)—After weeks of study and debate the air armaments commission of the disarmament conference today adopted a report declaring bombardment from the air to be a grave threat against civilians.

This was virtually the only important principle on which the members of the commission, whose task was to define weapons that were offensive, were unanimous. They agreed that air bombardment was of considerable efficacy against any nation's defense.

how about yours?

It leaps toward you—you hear the hot grinding of steel wheels—a bell, frantically jangles. Tragic picture! Answer this question—would your tires grip the road—stop you in time?

Floyd Gibbons

HELLO EVERYBODY—
Floyd Gibbons speaking. I always took one particular pride in the old U. S. A. and it was based on the fond belief that Americans have the highest standard of living of any people in the world and also, we place the highest value on human life.

What a jolt that belief has just received! Could you imagine that human life is cheaper in the U. S. A. than in war-ridden China? Neither could I until the figures proved it to me.

Yes, sir, we killed more people right here in God's Country, in the same length of time, than were killed at Shanghai.

We wounded ten times as many. We weren't fighting a war. No, sir. Our killing and wounding was done in automobile accidents.

Frightful!

I stopped at the Goodrich plant in Akron on my way home from Shanghai. They told me about a survey just made. It showed 57% of the cars in typical cities were operating on unsafe tires. Tires that invite disaster.

Where inches mean safety!

I began to understand why so many are killed and injured. Tires carry the weight of the car. They transmit the power. They do the braking. They do the steering. Fifty miles an hour on a few square inches of rubber—the sole link between you and the world—between you and safety!

I found out more at Akron. I found out what Goodrich has done to make this "safety link" safer.

Three years they've been at it. Developing a new tire. Testing formulas. Testing processes. Testing designs.

Now it's ready. They call it the SAFETY Silvertown. They say it's the safest tire ever built. They convinced me.

I saw them drop a heavy metal prong—like a guillotine—on this tire. They had to drop it 75 feet before it penetrated.

The Torture Chamber!

I stood in a room where the temperature was 120 degrees—the torture chamber—and saw machines strike these tires with steel cleats—hundreds of times a minute. They were duplicating driving conditions on the desert—proving these tires won't burst when super-hot.

We went to a deserted stretch of road. Asphalt. Wet. There was a wedge-shaped corner. Sharper than a right-angle turn. One of their test drivers brought a car down to that turn at 42 miles an hour. Then took it—without brakes. We saw puffs of steam come out from under those Safety Silvertowns as they clutched that glazed, wet pavement. They literally buried the water off the street, leaving a clear, dry track behind them.

THEY DIDN'T SKID AN INCH!

With thousands injured in skidding accidents every year, this is more than news—it's a SENSATION.

That came the biggest surprise. I asked who could afford to buy Safety Silvertowns.

"They don't cost one cent more than any standard tire," I was told. "For instance, the price is $7.05 for the Ford and Chevrolet size. Of course, tires can be bought even cheaper than that. Others make them—Goodrich makes them, too—for as little as $4.16. But they are NOT Safety Silvertowns."

I'll save my neck!

Let's figure it out—the difference between $7.05 and $4.16 is $2.89.

"Saving" $2.89 on a tire—that's what a lot of people are doing now.

And the toll of dead and injured mounts year after year!

No, thank you! With driving speeds what they are—with traffic what it is—with a few square inches of rubber the sole link with safety—I'll save $2.89 some other way!

Not on tires!

I'm for this League, too!

Here's something: The Silvertown Safety League. It gives me driving rules to follow—for safety. It gives me an emblem for my car. I joined up! Any Goodrich dealer will enroll you, they tell me. No cost.

The Torture Chamber! Temperature 120! Wheels studied with steel cleats. Striking hundreds of times a minute! Duplicating driving conditions on the desert—proving these tires won't burst when super-hot!

U. S. EXPENSE CUT BY ECONOMY BILL PASSED BY SENATE

the president by Senators Robinson, of Arkansas, democratic leader; Harrison, of Mississippi; Barkley, of Kentucky, and other democrats.

The administration senators—Jones, of Washington, who voted against the furlough, and Smoot, of Utah, who voted for it—replied that the president had not talked to them on the subject.

Saying he had requested Chairman Smoot, of the finance committee, to call that body together to plan new taxes, Senator King, democrat, Utah, asserted:

"It is obvious in view of shrinking revenues we will need $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 to balance the budget."

Plan 'Broken Down.'

Robinson, in moving to recommit the bill to the committee to recommend new economies, said "it must be apparent to all of us that the so-called economy program has broken down."

He said the senate had cut from $80,000,000 to $110,000,000 from the bill, leaving $140,000,000 to $150,000,000, but Byrnes said the figure was really $120,000,000.

Robinson characterized the senate's action as a "signal and disgusting failure in view of all the talk that has occurred on this subject."

"It not only appears that we have done little," he added, "but it is also apparent that we do not know what we have done."

"It is a deplorable failure and one that will reflect itself in disappointment throughout the country."

Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, asked Chairman Jones, of the appropriations committee, how much remained in the bill. Jones estimated the economies still in the measure at "about $150,000,000."

House Passage.

The economy bill as passed by the house carried savings of $42,000,000 after that body had turned down most of the recommendations of its economy committee.

Senator Jones expressed doubt as to whether the house would accept the furlough plan when it goes to conference to reconcile differences in two versions in which case it might have to be brought up for another vote in the senate.

The house provided an 11 per cent cut in federal pay but with the first $2,500 of all salaries exempted. This was estimated to save only $9,000,000 as the figure.

Estimates of the saving from the furlough plan varied widely due to uncertainty as to how many persons would be exempted by presidential order, but its proponents gave $90,000,000 as the figure.

The 10 per cent pay cut voted previously by the senate, with those receiving less than $1,000 annually exempted, was estimated to save $117,000,000.

'Unfair Legislation' Attacked in Addresses Before Convention of 5,000 Railroad Men

Railroad men from every section of Georgia gathered in Atlanta Wednesday for the first convention of the recently-organized Association of Railway Employees of the State of Georgia. Governor Russell was a speaker at a meeting of the association Wednesday night at the auditorium. Other speakers at the meeting are shown above. From left to right they are, J. C. McAuliffe, Augusta editor; William Schley Howard, Atlanta lawyer; W. L. Stanley, public relations director for the Seaboard; Blair Foster, Atlanta lawyer; William G. McRae, member of the legislature; J. O. Martin, state school supervisor, and Luke Arnold, secretary to Mayor James L. Key. Another speaker, not in the picture, was J. W. Milner, representing the state highway department. Staff photo by Bill Mason.

Every railroad employee in Georgia Wednesday night was urged to do his own job to the best of his ability and in an effort to regain lost business make himself an unofficial freight and passenger agent and, in general, an ambassador of railroad good will.

Nearly 5,000 employees of every road in the state, and representing every division on these roads, meeting at the first convention of the Association of Railway Employees of the State of Georgia, heard speakers condemn what was termed, unfair legislation against the railroads and demand that buses and motor freight lines be made to share their burden of the cost of construction and maintenance of the state highway system.

Chief among the speakers were Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr., W. L. Stanley, director of public relations for the Seaboard, and William Schley Howard, well-known lawyer.

The governor, in a brief address, promised personal support of any legislative measure giving "a square deal" to the railroads, while Mr. Stanley and Mr. Howard demanded that the legislature adopt a law which would force bus lines and motor freight companies to pay high rates of taxation, the funds derived to go to the construction and maintenance of the roads.

"It is far from fair to have the railroads pay the bulk of taxation and, in many instances, have it go to the upkeep of properties used by their competitors," Governor Russell said. "We would have fair bus regulations in Georgia now had not amendments attached to the last legislation sought not been held unconstitutional. I believe that when the railroads present their case to the various legislatures and to congress they will be given fair treatment and their competitors made to operate under laws which will equalize the burden of taxation."

Mr. Stanley and Mr. Howard went further, the latter demanding that Governor Russell call a special session of the legislature to deal with railroad problems in Georgia.

The Seaboard official asserted that every employee of every railroad should see to it that his company got all the business available and that their district send men to the legislature who would give railroads justice in matters of legislation.

"The railroads of Georgia pay more than $4,000,000 a year in state and county taxes," Mr. Howard pointed out. "The bus and motor freight lines pay only about $135,000 in taxes, yet the state of Georgia is providing for the buses and trucks paved highways through the use of which they are killing the railroad's business in the state. The state passed a law forbidding other railroads to build competing lines along the route of the old Western and Atlanta between Atlanta and Chattanooga, yet within a few years it built itself a magnificent paved highway between the two cities and let the buses and motor freight lines carry on a competition that it would not permit railroads paying high taxes to do."

The meeting, which was held at the City Auditorium, closed a one-day convention of the organization.

O. W. Greenleaf, of Augusta, president of the association, reported that, although it had been organized only two months, its membership already contained the names of 45,000 of the 65,000 railroad employees of the state.

Other speakers at the meeting included J. C. McAuliffe, Augusta editor; Blair Foster, Atlanta lawyer; William G. McRae, retiring member of the legislature; J. O. Martin, state school supervisor; J. W. Milner, of the state highway department, and Luke Arnold, secretary to Mayor James L. Key, who welcomed the railroad men on behalf of the mayor.

A business session of the association was held at the Henry Grady hotel Wednesday morning, with C. J. Haden, Atlanta capitalist, as the principal speaker.

You...WHO HAVEN'T A TELEPHONE

If you are one of those who are trying to economize by doing without telephone service, think of the inconvenience and disappointment it causes your friends who have telephones.

In doing without a telephone, you are sacrificing many friendly social contacts with them. You are making it difficult for them to include you and your family in their social activities. If there are children in your family, they, too, are being limited in the development of friendships so important to their future. Making it difficult for friends to communicate with you as often as they wish, isolates you and your family.

But loss of ready contact with relatives and friends, serious as it is, is not all you sacrifice when trying to do without a telephone. Nothing takes the place of a telephone as a protection.

In emergencies, its value can be measured only by the seriousness of the emergency. Almost daily we read in the papers where the presence of a telephone was the direct means of saving life or property. Such protection alone is worth the small cost of the service.

Then add to this the convenience, comfort and satisfaction of mind that a telephone in the home provides and you will probably agree that in trying to get along without it, you are sacrificing too much for the few pennies a day that the service costs.

We want you as a customer and your friends, too, would like to be able to reach you by telephone. Don't put it off. Order your telephone today.

VETERANS IGNORE PLEAS TO LEAVE

for an unknown destination in Baltimore, Md., for donated supplies.

A national headquarters was established in a vacant apartment building loaned by the owner, the Anacostia river encampment—largest of the camps—was reorganized on a military basis and its nearly 6,000 inhabitants sought stray lumber to build more shelters. From tonight on the army will be its own boss, with police on the sidelines to keep order.

An order by Brigadier General Pelham D. Glassford offered the accommodation of free rides of 50 miles or so in every direction. The thousands here are from every state.

A few had left today, but the vast majority was determined to stay and see the outcome of the vote Monday when the bonus payment proposal comes before the house.

A considerable section of the tattered army is still firm in its determination to "stay until 1945 unless the bonus is paid."

A move to reduce the interest rate of bonus loans, which is rapidly consuming many of the certificates, was made today in the house.

The ways and means committee approved the Bacharach bill which would make the interest rate on the certificates 4 per cent. The veterans' administration estimated this would cost the government $140,000,000 before the certificates mature in 1945.

Food which the veterans receive at their encampments today was the last to be purchased with funds administered by the police, and the leaders were preparing to solicit donations to supply their self-administered commissary.

Meanwhile, police kept in close touch with federal officials as the numbers at the camps continued to swell. At Bolling field, adjacent to the camp on the Anacostia river, leaves were cancelled, guards doubled and emergency measures taken.

ough handling by the veterans themselves caused communist agitators to change their tactics in working among the veterans. The communists today attempt to distribute a mimeographed sheet called "Daily Notes."

A small negro boy was taken in hand and given trial by the veterans as he sought to pass the sheets about the Anacostia camp.

Because of his size he was allowed to leave unmolested after a warning not to come back.

The "Daily Notes" were couched in careful language and devoted much space to race discrimination. Many of the veterans in the encampments are negroes. It encouraged support for the Workers' Ex-Servicemen's League, a communist organization which is now under constant surveillance by police and department of justice agents.

Rejection of their requests to demonstrate publicly caused considerable confusion among the league's leaders.

Their original plans had called for a "monster" demonstration today, but failure to secure proper permits changed that plan. Next it was decided to attempt to present a petition to Vice President Curtis and Speaker Garner at the capitol Friday, but late in the day this plan was changed and a decision made to try again for a parade permit.

CLERGYMAN WILL URGE VETS TO RETURN HOME
PITTSBURGH, June 8.—(AP)—Rev. James R. Cox, rector of Old St. Patrick's church, will fly to Washington tomorrow and urge the bonus seekers there to return to their homes by Monday.

B.S. MILLER TO RUN FOR SPEAKERSHIP

Veteran Muscogee Leader Announces Candidacy for House Post.

A ruling Wednesday by State Chairman Lawrence Camp that county committees have the right to fix closing dates for entries for the general assembly provoked most of the interest in state politics.

gubernatorial candidates continued their preliminary organization and a new candidate, Brick S. Miller, Columbus, announced that he would seek the speakership. Miller, it is generally conceded, will be one of the three members of the Muscogee delegation. He has served several times in the general assembly and is regarded as one of the ablest of legislative veterans.

Camp's ruling about county committees was given to straighten a tangle which had arisen in Bibb county where only two candidates had qualified for the three seats in the house on June 3, the date set by the committee for all statewide officers. The Bibb committee had fixed August 15 as the closing date and the chairman was asked which date would control.

The chairman held that while the state committee did fix June 3 for the closing of entries for major state offices, superior court judges and solicitors-general—because there are no judicial district committees to fix rules—but left congressional, senatorial and county races to separate committees.

Will W. J. Crowe, of Sylvestor, in charge, headquarters of John I. Kelley were opened at the Piedmont. Announcement was made that Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. had established temporary headquarters in a downtown office building.

Thomas W. Hardwick, in Atlanta Wednesday, said that his first speech would be made in Albany June 16, at which time he would outline his platform. His headquarters will be in Augusta in charge of his law partner.

Sale Takes Art Objects Of Clara Kimball Young

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—(AP)—A treasure chest of objects of art, including a portrait of Clara Kimball Young, former reigning beauty of the world, during her tours of the world, were sold Tuesday under an auctioneer's hammer at a private sale.

Miss Young, now the wife of Dr. Arthur Fauman, was unable to attend the sale. She suffered serious injuries a week ago in an automobile accident at Ventura. Her husband, who was uninjured, said she was improving slowly.

Troup county citizens formed the Ralls club to promote the candidacy of Hamilton Ralls for commissioner of agriculture. They tagged Ralls with the slogan: "Professional farmer and amateur politician." Dr. E. S. Burton was named president and an executive committee named to direct the campaign.

F. B. Summers, Atlanta and Jonesboro candidate for governor, announced the appointment of J. H. Harrellson, chairman of the Atlanta school board, as his campaign manager.

GEORGIA G. O. P. FIGHT IS MOVED TO CHICAGO

None of the seven delegates elected by both factions will accept places on the delegation to Chicago selected by the Mamie Williams "wing." It was announced Wednesday by Wilson Williams, secretary of the republican state central committee.

The opposing faction, backed by Mamie Williams, the negro national committeewoman from Georgia, will take its contest against the regular faction before the republican national committee at Chicago today.

The seven delegates involved are Josiah T. Rose, state chairman; H. H. Nichols, of the second district; A. N. Tumin and Garrett Andrews, of the seventh; T. A. Chastain and T. W. Moss, of the ninth; and J. P. Wood, of the tenth district.

Rose is in Chicago with James W. Arnold, national committeeman, to conduct the interest of the regular delegation in the fight brought against them by the Mamie Williams faction.

Ben J. Davis, nee editor of Atlanta, is also in Chicago to assist the Rose-Arnold delegation.

Secretary Williams went to Chicago by plane Wednesday to join the others on the ground in the interest of the regular Georgia delegates. He carried the records to present to the national committee when it convenes at the Congress hotel this afternoon to take up the contest. The one from Georgia will be called first and it will be followed by those of Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and one district contest from Tennessee and one from Virginia.

James O. Lemon, negro, chairman of the Chatham county committee, will be general counsel for the contestants. Arnold will act as counsel for the regular delegates.

BUILDERS' EXHIBIT IS READY TO OPEN

The "last word" in conveniences for the modern home have been installed at the Palais Peachtree, 452 Peachtree street, in readiness for the Atlanta Home & Builders' Show, which opens there at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The exhibits will be open until 11:30 o'clock every night this week.

Manufacturers and local dealers in modern building materials and equipment have joined in presenting an exhibit designed to encourage building of cottages and bungalows at a time when such construction offers especial economy.

Automatic refrigerators of several types, automatic stoves that feed the furnace and remove the ashes, electrical devices that make house-keeping easier, and models of small homes with new comforts "built in" are among the exhibits.

Hal Moffett's orchestra will play every afternoon and night throughout the week. All the proceeds from the ten-cent admission fees will go to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children. The exhibitors have assumed all the expenses of the show.

FULTON TO ABSORB SCHOOL IN ROSWELL

The city school system of Roswell is to be merged with the Fulton county school system as soon as possible, as the result of a school election held there Wednesday, according to Jere A. Wells, county school superintendent.

The Roswell district recently merged with Fulton county and the city had a school system of its own caring for 300 children. The election Wednesday polled 144 votes, 138 for abolition of the old system and 6 against.

Mr. Wells stated that the merger of the systems will be taken up next Tuesday at a meeting of the county board of education. He said that the board will seek some method of taking in the Roswell school before January 1.

NEGRO MINISTER HELD IN U. S. MAIL FRAUD

Daniel Otter, who claims to be a minister in the African Baptist church, was held in $2,000 bond on a charge of using the mails to defraud at a hearing Wednesday before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith. Otter was arrested at the Avondale postoffice, following an extensive investigation by Clyde Fleming, postal inspector, who had been assigned to the case by H. S. Smith, chief inspector, at the request of Clint Hager, district attorney.

The itinerant preacher, according to Fleming, had for some time been obtaining merchandise from mail order concerns by the subterfuge of signing prominent Atlanta women's names to orders and then forging checks in payment for the shipments. Otter had gone to the Avondale postoffice to call for a package addressed to Mrs. Sarah Cooledge when he was arrested.

MRS. PONTICUS DIES; FORMER DECATUR GIRL

Mrs. Carlisle Ponticus, formerly Miss Estelle Ansley, of Atlanta and Decatur, died Wednesday at her home at Seneca Falls, N. Y., after a long illness.

She is survived by her husband, two children, her mother, Mrs. Harry Ansley, of Decatur; a brother, Harry Ansley, and a sister, Mrs. Louis C. Ingram, of Decatur. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

R. J. INGRAM'S SON IS NOT AUTO DEALER

Robert W. Ingram, head of the Ingram Motor Company, of Decatur, is not a survivor of Robert J. Ingram, veteran Atlanta & West Point conductor, who was killed in a motor car accident at Hogansville Monday night. The accident victim is survived by two sons, Louis C. Ingram, of Decatur, and Robert J. Ingram Jr., of Charlotte, N. C.

One drop does it instantly—then corn lifts right off

If you want to keep your feet free from aching corns just get a bottle of FREEZONE from any druggist. Put a drop or two on the corn. Pain stops instantly, and for good! Then before you know it the corn gets so loose you can lift it right off with your fingers, easily and painlessly. It's the safe way that millions use to get rid of hard and soft corns and calluses. Works like a charm! Try it.

Kentucky Judge Asks Troops for Mine Area

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., June 8.—(P)—Circuit Judge Ira D. Smith requested Governor Ruby Laffoon today to order national guard troops into Christian county.

The request was telegraphed at the conclusion of a conference with Sheriff Barrett E. Brown and other officials which followed the arrest of three miners today in connection with the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Wallace Myers.

Myers, serving as a mine guard at Empire mine No. 6, was killed yesterday when machine gun and rifle bullets were fired from a nearby hill as miners emerged from the Empire pit. The miners scattered and were uninjured. Former employees of the mine have been on strike several weeks.

KIDNAP HOAX LANDS TRIO IN COUNTY JAIL

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—(P)—A 19-year-old schoolgirl, Rita Bray, her fiancé and another youth, who police said confessed a $1,000 kidnap hoax against the girl's father, were sentenced today to one year in the county jail for extortion. A plea for probation was denied.

SUPPLY SERVICE PLAN FOR 'ARMY'

Atlanta Unit Prepares To Aid in Keeping Local Marchers at Capital.

Atlanta's bonus army Wednesday night continued northward in its move on Washington while comrades left behind launched plans of forming an organized service of supply unit to make good the avowed purpose of "staying in Washington until 1945 unless the bonus is paid before that time."

Although the Atlanta unit of 125 men—hites and negroes—was better supplied with operations material in the form of food, money and transportation than were their comrades from other sections, a group of local war veterans started a movement to assure food and care for the ex-soldiers during their sojourn in the national capital.

The supply unit move was launched by Tom Davis, former doughboy, who called a meeting for 7:30 o'clock Friday night at 160 Forsyth street, S. W., to which all former service men are invited. Free entertainment will be provided, and plans will be formulated for the support of the Atlanta delegation in the bonus offensive.

Wednesday afternoon the Atlanta contingent was reported clipping through South Carolina at a good pace. They were still maintaining their tentative set schedule and hoped to reach Washington during the last days of the week—an objective which will probably demand night travel part of the time.

Reports trickling back said the bonus seekers were confident and in good morale, with plenty of food and enough money to complete their journey. In Washington they will find an army of bonus seekers which in numbers is nearing the point of a skeleton division. Officialdom was reported as exasperated at the turn of events which may find a food shortage sometime today. Meanwhile other delegations from Maine to California were reported as ready to move on the capital.

PULLMAN CUTS RATES FOR JUNE 18 EXCURSION
Co-operating with the Southern Railway System in the operation of its one-cent-per-mile anniversary excursion on June 18, the Pullman company will sell round-trip sleeping car tickets at a reduction of 25 per cent under regular fares to holders of Southern anniversary day tickets. This marks another innovation in the offering of reduced transportation charges to the traveling public. Assistant General Passenger Agent E. E. Barry, of the Southern, announced Wednesday.

The reduced rate Pullman tickets will be honored on the going trip in regular line and extra Pullman cars, operated by the Southern Railway System on Saturday, June 18, and for the return trip in any regular line or extra Pullman cars up to and including Sunday, June 26.

This is the first time in history that the Pullman company has made a general reduction of this kind, it was said.

"BANDAGED" BURGLAR SOUGHT IN ROBBERY
Police Wednesday night searched for a bandaged burglar who early Wednesday morning smashed the plate glass window of a Rogers store at 1400 Peachtree street, cut himself entering and later made off with a quantity of cigars and tobacco. A trail of blood led the officers a few blocks before it vanished.

Another window-smashing raider—or perhaps the same one—entered a Liggett's drug store at 628 Lee street in the same smashing manner and carried away 40,000 cigarettes and about $2 in change from cash register.

Officers apprehended two youths early Wednesday in an automobile reported to have been stolen from Mrs. E. Welling, of 94 North avenue, N. W. They gave their names as Donald Self, 958 Howell Mill road, and Emory Howard, 905 1-2 Marietta street.

Tennesseean Slain.
ETOWAH, Tenn., June 8.—(P)—Jim Cooley, 32, prominent McMinn county farmer, was shot to death by Marvin Raper, 19, near here early Wednesday morning. Raper is the son of Ben Raper, a tenant on the Cooley farm. No previous trouble was known to have existed between the two.

Hero of Prison Breaks Retires With 100 Per Cent

ELMIRA, N. Y., June 8.—(P)—Fred A. Bowman, 250-pound guard at the state reformatory here, who put down two attempted prison breaks at the institution single-handed during his 44 years of service, observed his seventy-second birthday anniversary today by announcing his retirement.

A complete record is kept of every guard's service. Bowman's is brief.

"Efficiency, punctuality, attention to duty and general conduct—100 per cent," it reads.

'WOBURN PILLBOX' FOUND TO HOUSE HUGE DISTILLERY

WOBURN, Mass., June 8.—(P)—Twenty federal agents headed by the Rev. Jonathan Lewis, prohibition administrator for New England, today penetrated the "Woburn Pillbox," a solid concrete structure without apparent means of entrance, and found a 30,000-gallon still.

The building, which has defied searchers for more than a week, yielded when means were discovered of operating an electrically controlled steel door, six inches thick, embedded in concrete a foot thick.

Lewis told newspapermen the still was "the largest and most elaborately equipped which has ever been found in New England."

The Pillbox was found by the raiders to have a depth varying from 40 to 60 feet below ground. Above ground it rises to a height of nearly 30 feet. Efforts of federal officials to contact officers of the company were said to have been unavailing.

NEW PLEA RECEIVED IN SCOTTSBORO CASE

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 8.—(P)—A new plea in behalf of seven negroes condemned to death for an attack on two white girls near Scottsboro, Ala., March 25, 1931, today reached Governor B. M. Miller's office from Philadelphia, Pa.

The plea contained 9,620 signatures and 5,180 group endorsements assembled by the Scottsboro case committee of Philadelphia and transmitted to the governor in one package.

The report favors the addition of the emergency freight rate surcharges southwest to enable carriers to meet motor truck competition.

Examiners William J. Korbel and R. G. Taylor recommended that in view of the financial condition of the railroads present revenues on the entire traffic under consideration should not be reduced.

The rates apply to practically all articles moved in the southwestern territory except grain, live stock and oil shipments.

NORGE Rollator REFRIGERATION CAN MAKE

MORE COLD for MORE YEARS

MORE COLD THAN YOU'LL EVER NEED

Cold! Plenty of cold to chill foods! Plenty more to freeze ice! And a big reserve of cooling power for extra years of dependable service. That's what you get in Rollator Refrigeration. And only in Norge can you get it.

Yes and that powerful, long-life Rollator mechanism is just one of the reasons for choosing Norge. The cabinet is another—handsomely designed, beautifully finished. The flat-bar shelves—waist high, generous in size, arranged for greatest convenience. The ice compartment—odor proof, sealed with a tidy, spring-hinged, gasket-cushioned door. The food compartment—acid-resisting porcelain with every corner smoothly rounded. The Icevoir, from which you can take handy bars of ice, untouched by tap water. The Watervoir—cold water on tap without ice. The Preservoir for extra cold storage at below-freezing temperatures. These and many other features add convenience to the dependable efficiency and economy of Rollator Refrigeration.

Review Next Week

sement. Lionel H. Keene, president of the Atlanta "Masonic Club," which is sponsoring the Kiddies' Revue, is supervising the entertainment. Many Atlanta dance teachers are operating with him. Forty students from the Atlanta high schools, selected as the "best singers in these institutions," will present musical features. The 1932 Kiddies' Revue is laid in intimate, pleasure resort overlooking the heart of Paris. Special interest lies in one number in the revue—that offered by lit-

Mildred Nelson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson, Miss Nelson, who has had considerable stage experience for her age, went to Hollywood to appear in Jackie Cooper in "When a Girl Needs a Friend." Back home again, the Fox program next week provides the novel opportunity to see her both on the screen and again on stage.

Mark Grand Closing
By Special Program
Just to pay tribute to the dear old memories that, for Atlanta's 'oldier,' watercooler at least, cluster around pillars and hide in every niche of the Grand theater, something in the nature of a memorial service is going to be held there Saturday night at 8 o'clock, when the last performance this week's program—of which feature is the Joan Crawford picture, "Letty Lynton"—is over, and that will be the last performance any kind in the old Grand. The theater is to be closed, completely torn down and a new and ultra-modern place of entertainment erected in its place. Progress is good and Atlanta will welcome the new theater when it opens in September, but the closing of the Grand, which once used all the famous of the stage of generation or two ago, brings its age of romance. It is the passing another landscape, clustered thick pleasant memories.

At the 11 o'clock performance Sat-day a DeMolay quartet will sing another quartet from the Elks club has been invited to take part.
They will sing such old-time songs
"Auld Lang Syne" and the olders in the audience will, undoubtedly, feel that they are taking part in a mighty solemn ritual just before the stars turn out for the last time—in old Grand.

Miss Taylor Is Feted at Parties By Members of Sub-Deb Group

Miss Anne Taylor, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is forming the inspiration for numerous social events for the school-girl set, as the guest of Miss Virginia Dillon at her home on Piedmont road. Miss Taylor, who was a student at Hollins College, Virginia, for the past year, accompanied Miss Mimi Fleming home from college and was her guest until yesterday when she went to visit Miss Dillon, also a classmate.

Miss Dillon will entertain at a winter roast at 8 o'clock this evening at her home, honoring her visitor. The guests will assemble at the barbecue pit at the back of the house, where strings of tiny electric lights will furnish light and add to the festive air. The guests will include the following belles of the younger set and their escorts: Misses Mimi Fleming, Emily Plummer, Marian Yundt, Patsy Thayer, Isabel Knight, Harriett Grant, Suzanne Meminger, Frances Morton, Mary Blackwell, Ruth Wright, Jule McClatchey, Mary Bryan, Florence Bryan, Mary Ann Carr, Betty Scott, Judy King, Louise King, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Emily Matthews, Harriett Lee, Sarah Simms, Laura Whitner, Frances Boykin and her guests, Barbara V. Dyke, of Summit, N. J., and Louise Winfree, of Lynchburg, Va.

Miss Emily Plummer will entertain at luncheon today at Brookhaven Club, honoring Miss Taylor. Covers will be placed for Misses Taylor, Dillon, Mimi Fleming, Harriett Grant, Isabel Knight, of Buford; Sarah Simms, Louise King, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Patsy Thayer and the hostess. Miss Isabel Knight will entertain at a small swimming party at Brookhaven this afternoon. Following the swim tea will be served on the club terrace overlooking the lake. Miss Dillon and her visitor will be lunch guests Friday of Mrs. Edwin Williams at her home on Peachtree road. Other parties being planned will be announced later.

Miss Horton Presents Pupils in Recital.

Miss Mozelle Horton, pianist and teacher, will present a group of the junior members of her piano students in the last of the season's studio recitals this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Hugh Hodgson's studio in the Erlanger theater. A number of novel features will appear on the program as well as classic compositions of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Grieg and other composers. Four expression pupils from Miss Mary Power's studio will give readings.

Much interest centers about the announcements of the winner of the prize for the greatest improvement during the spring term. Friends are invited to attend.

Those playing will be: Misses Virginia Morris, Sarah Thurman, Camilla Huggler, Nelle Scott Earhartman, Jane Coffin, Corinne Huggler, Carol Harding, Rose Negri, Sarah Matewa, Betty Hodges, Elizabeth Harralson, Edna McNair, Henrietta Fink, Truett Coleman, Georgia Coleman, Winnifred O'Dell, Hazel Denton, Regina King, Mary Alma Evans, Rosalie Kalesch, Virginia Broome, Emily Sanford, Carol Williams, Elizabeth Almon, Avice Hagley, Beulah Notrica and Edie Negri. Claud Nelson, Comer Weaver, Charles Evans, Charles Lee, Adrienne Fink, readings will be given by Misses Helen Bousharing, Martha Doyle, Ann Goodman and Harriet Goodman.

Roaches Breed In Filth, Then Crawl In Food

At night roaches bring filth into otherwise clean homes, disseminating this foulness on food, cooking ware, plates and everything they touch.

These odious pests can be killed easily and cheaply if you use Gator Roach Hives, the one exterminator purposely designed to save you the constant application, the costly waste and the unsightly mess of all other roach killers. Gator Roach Hives are open ended little tubes hold in a firm, special food that attracts and kills roaches. They are safe to use because they cannot soil or stain, have no odor and are harmless to pets and fowls. Get a few from your store today—they last for a long time. Money will be refunded if you are not delighted with the special services Gator Roach Hives only can give.

Meeting Postponed.

The open house meeting of Decatur Woman's Club, scheduled to have been held Friday, June 10, has been postponed to Wednesday, June 15, on account of plans for a similar observance of the date originally set, by Agnes Lee chapter, U. D. C.

The affair will be purely social, members being privileged to bring invited guests and spend all or a part of the day sewing, playing games and otherwise enjoying contact with members and friends.

They are charming acquisitions to the married set of society.

Dr. Newdigate M. Owensby has returned from a week's visit to Philadelphia, where he attended the annual convention of the American Psychiatric Association. In addition to being the only southern official of this organization, he was placed on some of the more important committees.

Miss Betty Martin returns today from Charleston, S. C., where she has been attending Ashley Hall school.

Miss Gertrude Elkin, of Macon, arrives in Atlanta Friday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Leverett Walker, at the Georgian Terrace. She will be among the visiting belles attending the swimming party and tea to be given by Miss Sarah Hewlett in compliment to her lovely cousin, Miss Mary Lou Yancy Gilles, of Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, June 11, at Brookhaven Country Club.

Mrs. J. C. Brown and Miss Zella Richardson Brown, of Dallas, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Alonzo Richardson at her home on Piedmont avenue, and are being entertained at a series of informal social affairs.

Miss Mamie Blinn and Miss Grace Anderson will sail from New York July 1 on the steamer Edropa to spend several months in Europe.

Selman Ledbetter and Robert Hillier left yesterday for a motor trip to Florida to spend two weeks.

Miss Jennie Ruth Stone, of Gifford, S. C., is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stone.

Mrs. Ed Reimer, of 1420 McPherson avenue, S. E., is improving at her home following an operation three weeks ago.

Mrs. A. L. Fowler is at St. Joseph's Infirmary, having undergone an appendix operation last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Worth Martin, who have been spending the past month at Radio Springs, Ga., passed through Atlanta Tuesday en route to Balsam Springs, N. C., and will later go to the mountains of Tennessee and various points in Virginia to spend the remainder of the summer.

BEER LEGISLATION ADVOCATED BY REED

Missouri Senator Urges Measure as Means To Raise Taxes.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—(AP)—Action by congress to legalize 3 or 3 1/2 per cent beer and wine of "limited alcoholic content" was advocated today by former Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, as an immediate tax raising measure.

He declared beer and wine could be brought back by congress "acting fairly" within the limits of the constitution.

AMERICAN RELATES STORY OF TORTURE AT CHINESE HANDS

SHANGHAI, June 8.—(AP)—Charles Baker, American steamboat captain who was abducted by Chinese brigands last winter, arrived in Shanghai today and told his story of five months of terror in which he was threatened with death fifty times.

The captain, 30 pounds underweight as a result of exposure and filthy food, was in Shanghai to get back his strength and then he will join his family in Oakland, Cal. Although his captors frequently threatened to kill him unless a ransom of 50,000 Mexican dollars was paid, he finally was released without any money changing hands. American missionaries arranged it.

"It was threatened with death fifty times," he said. "I never expected to survive."

"These half-civilized, treacherous, inhuman bandits, who call themselves communists, are conducting a wholesale kidnapping business. Their victims are any foreigners or wealthy Chinese they can lay their hands on, who, they believe, would be capable of paying huge ransoms."

CHICAGO TRADE BOARD CLASHES WITH CO-OP. WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Each charging the other with trying to put it "out of business," the Chicago Board of Trade and the Farmers' National Grain Corporation stood with horns locked tonight as federal commissioners prepared to hear the argument of counsel in the co-operative fight to retain clearing house privileges.

Further testimony on the grain corporation's financial condition will be submitted tomorrow morning, although Arthur F. Lindley, president of the board's clearing house, declared that question was not considered in denying membership to the Farmers' National.

WOMEN RANK HIGHER BY ORDER OF IL DUCE

ROME, June 8.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini at last has placed women almost on a par with man in the fascist system.

Today, under the party axis was issued a new regulation "to carry fascism into the family." It reorganizes the feminine fascist groups, ordering the formation of units for women and girls wherever there is a men's unit. This applies to about 4,000 communities in Italy.

The women and girls are charged with "all the obligations of those who fight for the party."

Mrs. MacMillan Fetes Mrs. Eugene Thornton.

An event of yesterday was a bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. J. A. MacMillan at her home at 1049 Reeder circle, N. E., honoring Mrs. Eugene Thornton. Eight friends assembled at 1 o'clock to greet the honor guest, to whom the affair was a complete surprise.

The home was decorated with garden flowers in pastel shades. The table was covered with an imported Venetian lace cloth, and the centerpiece was formed of pink sweet peas. At each guest's place was a dainty old-fashioned nosegay. After lunch-contraband bridge was enjoyed, and the hostess presented the guest of honor with a handsome silver flower bowl.

The guest list included Mesdames Eugene Pennington, Pennington, Thomas Jarrell, Robert Mizelle, Stephen Banta, D. R. Longino, G. E. Rathell, R. G. Kreiling, L. G. Barker, of Miami, Fla., and J. A. MacMillan.

MOTHER—Watch this Girl... This is the Time You Should be on Your Guard

"My back bothers me," she quietly complains... "I guess I'll lie down." Have you ever felt this way yourself?

Despondent, Listless Girls

SHE LOOKS despondent, worried and depressed. Young girls budding into womanhood often get quiet and listless. Lassitude overtakes them. They should be watched!

"I have a headache," they quietly complain. "My back bothers me. I guess I'll lie down."

These are the symptoms, mother. And you should be on your guard. During this "trying time" every young girl needs the helpful benefit of a strengthening medicine like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

The newspapers carry a fine commentary on marriage after the modern mode. The story in question issues from Hollywood and explains that a certain star and her husband occupy separate homes, not because they don't love each other, not because they can't get along together but because each prefers a different manner of life. One chooses a great house with servants and luxuries that go along with it, while the other chooses to live in utmost simplicity. There is no effort to adjust their differences of opinion, no unselfish relinquishing of preferences, just a dogged determination each of them to have his or her own way and if separate establishments and divided lives are necessary to that end they will have them, convention to the contrary.

How can any couple make a marriage on such a basis? How can any woman or any man, ever though he or she be an artist with first emphasis placed upon artistic temperament and artistic expression, hope to find peace and security in such a marriage or abiding affection and solid satisfaction under such abnormal manner of living? Perhaps it is a press notice story designed to give box-office publicity to the principals. But artist or artisan, public person or private person, easterner or westerner, when love enters the heart they all want the same things of it. They want to keep love young and green, to secure it, to find refuge in it, to feel its warmth and to sense its strength. They all want the same things of love, the best things, the most enduring things, the most satisfying things. Yet they fancy, many of them, that they may have all these benefits without paying the price for them.

How wrong they are! The more precious an object, material or spiritual, the higher the price of it. The more you want of love the more you must pay to get it. Isn't this Hollywood story antipodal to the story of the pioneer American women who left homes of luxury and ease in the eastern part of this country and trekked west with their husbands, encour-

Sudden Love

By ELIZABETH SANXAY HOLDING

SYNOPSIS. Esmee Sally spends her formative young life between the office, where she is an inefficient typist, and a dismal home. The widowed Mrs. Sally loves her children blindly, but doesn't know how to direct their spiritual or physical needs. Law, a year older, than Esmee, is misbegotten in bad company. Cynthia, the eldest, has been deserted by her husband, Lew, whom she has in his power, to introduce his sister, Esmee, married for beauty and change, is fascinated by Jimmy's grand manner, but finds him an unmanageable lover. Then she meets Michael Marriott, a dissipated young playboy, it's love at first sight. She feels his need of her is real. Retreating home one evening, Esmee finds Michael waiting for her. He'd been drinking heavily. Esmee takes him home in a cab, but finds he has no key and can't get in. In desperation she takes him to a hotel and registers as his wife. Claire Cowley, Michael's sister, tells Esmee that Michael is engaged. But when Michael calls, Esmee goes to see him. He tells her his engagement is broken and begs her to marry him. Esmee tries unsuccessfully to break with Jimmy, who accuses her of double-crossing him and threatens to have Lew sent to jail. Esmee tries to get out of the hotel, but Jimmy Sunday sent his promises freedom for Lew if she will spend the week-end with him. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT XXII. There was a long silence between them while he drove uptown, and into Fordham. "You know," Jimmy said presently, "when I just knew you, I thought you were a good kid. I tried you out—and I'd have sworn you were straight." "Well, I am," she said. "The hell you are!" he said with sudden ferocity. "I know you were cheating when I saw that money. But I didn't know how far you'd go—until the other night. Until you spent the night with that bird." "Jimmy, that wasn't—I swear that wasn't the way you think it was." "Swear all you want," he said. "The facts are good enough for me. I had some one trailing you. I know you went to a hotel with the boy friend, and registered as his wife, and had a room with him all night. That's what I know. What you say doesn't count. She knew nothing more to say. She glanced at him, and his handsome face was sneering. "I thought you were a good kid," Jimmy went on. "I was ready to marry you. But not now. That's out." "Jimmy, Esmee said, "nobody can help their feelings. If you'd met another girl you—care for more—I'd have understood. I'd have tried to be nice, no matter how much it hurt. Jimmy, can't you—won't you be generous?" "Sure," he said. "When you are." "I don't see—" "I'll tell you. You spent a night with that bird. Now you spend a week-end with me, and we'll call it settled." "Jimmy! I can't! I can't!" "You will, though," he said, and he turned off into a quiet road, where he stopped the car. "You spend this week-end with me—or Lew goes up the river. And your boy friend makes a longer trip than that." "Jimmy, you couldn't! Jimmy, in the beginning I did care about you—the way I said. I truly did. I never knew, I never imagined I'd suddenly meet someone I'd—Jimmy, you don't know what love is." "Sure I do! It's spending the night in a hotel with this guy who's got plenty of money. Now here's where I get a break, and it's coming to me. You said you loved me. You said you'd marry me. You've cheated on me—and you're the first girl in the world ever did that. I'm letting you off easy." "Jimmy, you don't want me to come—when I don't want to, when I don't love you." "Yes, I do. I want you and you're coming. And I tell you I'm letting you off easy after the dirty trick you've played on me. Monday morning Lew comes home—and no strings to the kid he made him into a nice little Y. M. C. A. boy for all I care. And you can go back to that guy in the top hat. This one week-end's all you've got to give me." He paused and looked at her with narrowed eyes. "I don't know why I'm so soft about you. Something about you—something sweet. I don't know." He started the car again, and she sat motionless beside him for a time. "I won't, Jimmy," she said at last. "I won't stay with you. I'd rather die."

"Rather see Lew get a ticket to Sing Sing?" "Jimmy, isn't there anything I can say?" "Rather see the boy friend get a good load of lead in the stomach?" For a moment she thought she was going to faint. But she could not faint. She had to try. "Jimmy, you wouldn't—kill anybody?" "I would not. But there's plenty of birds that would on my say-so. And will." "I'd tell! I'd tell what you've said!"

"O, I guess I know how to look after myself, he said easily. "You can tell all you want. No one's going to get anything on me. I've been the fall guy once. Next time you settle the bill." They were on the Boston post road now, running smoothly and swiftly. "Now, see here," said Jimmy, half to himself. "Is that car trailing me?" Esmee clasped her hands together tightly. "I thought I saw that car before," Jimmy went on. "We'll see." He slowed down, and Esmee, still with fear, turned her head. The car behind had slowed down, too. "Yeah!" said Jimmy. "It's your boy friend, baby. Let him come!" "O, no, no, no! O, don't let it be Michael!" Esmee prayed in her heart. "May it not be Michael?" The next time they were stopped for a traffic light she turned her head again. It was a long, low coffee-colored four-seater, driven by a chauffeur in uniform. The car was unfamiliar to her. She was not able to recognize the man in the back seat. "Turn around here!" said Jimmy, and she obeyed. "O, don't let it be Michael!" she prayed. "You keep your eyes front," said Jimmy. "And your hands in your lap. No signals. You told your boy friend to come—and he's coming. That's O. K. with me." "I didn't, Jimmy! I tell you, I didn't! I—I don't think it's—anyone I know, anyhow." "O, yeah? Well, we'll find out." "Jimmy—if it is—it is—" "If it is," he said, "he'll sort of wish he hadn't had the idea, that's all." Esmee was silent, while the strangest barrage of words and phrases spun through her mind. "Steady, my lad! Keep your nerve. Things are never as bad as they seem. But the man worth while is the man who can smile when everything goes dead wrong. Keep smiling! Keep your nerve!" Suddenly she could endure no more; she seized Jimmy's arm. "I can't! I can't bear it, Jimmy!" "Stop that, you're making a little fool of me," he cried, as the car swerved. "Don't do that when I'm driving." She released him, sat looking at him in desperation. Presently, as they rounded a curve and came on to a level stretch of road, he turned his head and looked at her. And she saw in his face something more than contempt and bitterness; she saw pain there, regret, and a sort of wonder. "Care a lot for him, don't you?" he said, with his insolent smile. "What was the name answer? What was the way to manage Jimmy? In despair she tried to recall what she had read of the sirens of past ages. Should she flatter him, cajole him, beguile him? She could not. She could not even try. Her heart knew nothing but candor and good faith and loving kindness. Even now, in her great fear and dread, she was sorry for Jimmy. He was merciless, he was hard—but he suffered, and it was she who had made him suffer. Continued Tomorrow.

Ruth's 17th Homer Helps Yankees To Beat Tigers, 5 to 4

GEHRIG'S BLOW ALSO FACTOR; GOMEZ STARS

Twirler Allows But Five Hits and Fans 13 Men.

DETROIT, June 8.—(AP)—The Yankees' Big Three, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Vernon Gomez, got together today to take a close game from the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4.

Ruth and Gehrig drove in all the New York runs, the Babe hitting his 17th homer in the first inning and Lou providing the winning runs with his twelfth four-bagger in the seventh. Gomez was in trouble only through wildness.

He allowed five hits and fanned 13 but gave nine walks. Billy Rogell hit a homer in the fifth after two men had walked to keep Detroit in the running.

THE PORTLIGHT

The War at Fresh Meadow.

There is one feature of the Fresh Meadow course, which no open championship has ever known before—150 of the world's best golfers will be walloping their drives, whipping their irons and tapping their putts almost in the middle of 10,000 people, barely a mashie shot away. Well, maybe, a brassie shot.

Fresh Meadow, near Flushing, Long Island, is the scene of the next open golf championship of the United States. It is only a jump or two away from Broadway and Fifth avenue. Broad boulevards run to the right and left. One can almost see the extended shadows from the mighty dome and spire of the Empire State and the Chrysler buildings far across its narrow fairways.

This course is a green oasis in the midst of a million motor cars, more or less. But it will present the greatest cast and the strongest field in golf, starting with the champion of Japan, swinging to little Jurado, of the Argentine, and including almost every great golfer in the ancient game.

As a test it outclasses the British open, once the blue ribbon of Scotland's masterpiece. Armour, Sarazen and Mac Smith are now battling at Sandwick. They will be at Fresh Meadow—and in addition you will have Hagen, Diegel, Farrell, Horton Smith, Harry Cooper, Bill Burke, George Von Elm, the California Duffers, Fred Morrison, Bobby Cruikshank, John Gordan, Paul Runyan, Wiffy Cox, Jurado, Ed Dudley, Long Jim Barnes, Turnesa, Manero and others who can take part apart to see what makes it tick.

The rough in many spots is as matted and as heavy as a Malay jungle. There are thick bushes and rock ledges just off the fairway at any hole. There are bunkers, criss-crossed to make one place or the other. The test at Inverness is the test shot where the rough has been allowed to creep far out on the fairways. You need a rifle from the tee at Inverness. The fairways at Fresh Meadow are narrow enough, but the big shot is up to the green with pitch, full iron or wood.

There are four short holes at Fresh Meadow—the fourth, 185 yards; the ninth, 145 yards; the twelfth, 160 yards; and the fourteenth, 210 yards. They are good two shot holes, but they are not as hard as they look, especially the short ninth. There are at least four good two shots—the sixth, 430; the eighth, 445; the thirteenth, 440; and the fifteenth, 450. They are good two shot holes because they are all narrow, calling for accuracy with both wood and iron. And if a hostile wind is sweeping into your face, they are double tests.

The only two holes that range over 500 yards are the fifth at 510, and the sixteenth at 590.

When you step to the tee at the fifth, you first face an out of bounds to the left for any sort of hole. There is guarding rock wall, lined with bushes, which will likely be placed in out of bounds territory. There is a bunker also on the left side, but the main hazard is a big bunker to the right of the green. The golfer who plays safely away from the out of bounds walls must face this sandy guardian of the green if he hopes to get home or close in two, a good three-shot hole—this is a great two-shot hole—and this is a test to the fifth.

But no one will get near the green in two at the 500-yard 16th. There is trouble to the right and left, a cross bunker, a dip and a swale, and a well-guarded green, a green which slopes and slides.

No Baked Out Course.

The surviving field will have to earn its distance at Fresh Meadow, no matter what brand of flaming June sun may beat down. There are big sprinklers, which scatter 500 gallons of water a minute over the course from tee to green. One of the finest of all watering systems has been developed to take away any chance for a concrete fairway which so many open championships have known. This means full distance, even under a blazing June sun.

Fresh Meadow has variety and charm. It will be a mistake to let the rough grow up the fairways and it will be double mistake to set back the tees too far. In this case the true value of many fine holes will be spoiled.

After all, an open championship is not supposed to be a march to the guillotine or a tight-rope walking contest. There will be trouble enough at this battle ground near Flushing without any extra padding. For any narrow march to par, the quivering pulse will be hazardous enough.

Fresh Meadow is slightly rolling, but in no sense a hilly or billyow course. Al Cluel, brother Henry, played it recently in 64 strokes—32 out and 32 in. Al had no less than even 36. But it's different under the strain of competition. Fresh Meadow is the brand of course that intensifies strain and is inclined to bring on that most devastating of all faults—steering the ball. It should take some score around 290 to lead the pack, provided the weather carries the old June trademark.

shrinkage of security loans since rowings reached their peak in Sep-ber, 1929, has been nearly six times large, in dollars, as was the case during the 1921 depression.
Dow, Jones & Company pointed out that these loans had

$8,235,000,000 between September 1920, and May 31, of this year from $13,205,000,000 to $4,970,000, the recent total being 37 per cent of the high. A decade ago at their lowest ebb totaled $4,000,000, or 74.6 per cent of the 1920-21 total. The 1920-21 total of $821,000,000 top attained during preceding boom. The decline in borrowings, however, has been less severe than the decline in stocks. Shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange were valued at 18 per cent of their market highs on May 31—$1,000,000, against $89,668,000.

the end of August three years ago. The current aggregate of $14,812,000 in loans is the smallest since September 1922, when it was $14,812,000.

A Waziri, returning from the village of Obbe, the cannibal, saw a bone lying beside the trail. This particular bone caused him to pause. Usula had heard strange tales in the village, where rumor had brought him in search of his beloved master, Tarzan, the Big Bwana.

Obbe had seen no hand other than that of the Apes. But the Waziri learned that a white man had been kept a prisoner by Obbe. When he knew the time that had elapsed he knew it could not have been his master and so he turned toward home.

When he saw the bone along the trail several days out, he recalled the story of the missing Uhha. He saw something else—a small skin bag. Usula poured some of the contents into his palm. He knew what the things were and he knew that they belonged to his master.

There were the diamonds stolen from the Big Bwana by the white man who found Opar. Usula put the jewels into his belt. Three days later he suddenly saw an almost naked man lying upon the ground. The man was alive, but what was he doing?

tering hardships of which the modern woman has never dreamed!

They, too, could have remained at home amidst the things of soft comfort while husbands and sons took up the long trails across the continent. It is doubtful if the spirit of adventure animated them.

It is reasonable to suppose that they, too, preferred great houses and the luxuries that went with them but these women were paying the price for love and marriage, and with a brave spirit that took no account of the sacrifice they were making, they pressed on to the western limits.

A few generations in enjoyment of the benefits secured to us by these pioneers, a few generations of reaping the seeds of which they sowed and now the women are balking at sacrificing a personal preference in the mode of living. What would one of these soft and silken creatures say to a suggestion that she join her husband in a journey full of hardship and self-denial, a journey that might consume the best years of her
